

DRV DAV CENT. PUBLIC SCHOOL Students brings laurels in USO Festival

It is the matter of pride that our school had participated under 58th general conference and all India schools festival of USO in Hyderabad, in which different competitions like painting, declamation, group dance and one act play were held. 27 different schools all over India participated in this competition, out of which our school bagged first prize in painting competition which was awarded to Amisha of class X, not only this Sunidhi of class X won 2nd prize in declamation under women empowerment. Even the students of our school namely (Riya Gambhir, Gagandeep and Paras of class XII and Harjinder Singh, Amisha, Akshita, Sunidhi and Mayank of class Xth) participated in group dance and carried the day with 2nd prize.

Congrats to all the winners and it's a proud moment for all of us.

